

The role of educators in shelters from the perspective of a former unaccompanied minor.

The personal narrative of Hadi, a former unaccompanied minor from Afghanistan and his educational journey from the Moria RIC to the Iliaktida shelter until his admission to the Department of International European and Economic Studies of Athens Uni Economics and Bussiness.